NAME AND ADDRESS OF INFORMANT Rev. A. L. Reynolds 2321 T St.

I have been in church work all of my life. Even my father before who was slave used to hold church service from plantation to plantation.

My mother was left a widow when I was qui[?] quite young and as soon as I was big enough to work I was her sole support. I had a pretty tough time getting a higher education and I never stop trying to ger get more. I am particularly fond of spirituals but my favorite is: "I Counldn't Counldn't hear nobody pray."

The sermon that I always like to deliver, particularly to a congregation but up of a large number of sinners is: "You Must be Born Again." The significance of this is that an individual must / not be only a morally moral individuals but he must be spiritual. For God is a spirit and they that worship him must be of the spirit.

This means one must so surrender self, that the spirit of God may have possession of one's absolute being. His whole life there-for becomes God Conscience."
